

Uniquely Macgregors Seafood

Introducing...Jail Island Cold Ocean Trout

Raised in a natural and rare mix of cold, clean ocean water and flowing fresh water in the remote Bay d'Espoir, Newfoundland.

- This exquisite fresh trout has a rich, red color and refined, delicate flavor
- Raised with Care – the highest priority is to maintain the health & welfare of these trout and preserve the natural environment. Low stocking densities provide space to swim in the cold clean coastal waters of the North Atlantic.
